Vision

Education Service Center Region XIII will set the standard for excellence in educational service through leadership, responsiveness to client needs, and quality products that improve student performance.

Mission

- Initiate collaboration with our clients in the development of a quality educational environment.
- Provide client-focused quality products and services in a timely and efficient manner which promote improved performance in schools.
- Initiate collaboration with our clients to close the gap between current and desired student performance.

History

The regional education service center is a public institution created and authorized by the Texas Legislature. In 1965, the Legislature authorized the State Board of Education to establish regional media centers by 1967. That same year, the U. S. Congress passed the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 to provide funds for supplementary educational centers.

Texas is divided into 20 regions with each region having its own education service center. Region XIII was established in August 1967. Region XIII opened with a staff of three. The first executive director was Dr. Joe Parks who served in that capacity from 1967 - 1992. Region XIII is a service organization, not a regulatory agency. The center strives to provide excellent services and products to the 60 school districts in the 17 county area Region XIII serves. Participation by schools is voluntary. The goal of Region XIII is to achieve a high standard of excellence through leadership, responsiveness to client needs, and quality products that improve student performance. Region XIII is located in Northeast Austin at 5701 Springdale Road. Region XIII has a staff of more than 190 people and continues to grow to accommodate challenges and needs in the education field.
