Our assessment of this student during the G/T identification process has created useful information that can be used to appropriately serve the student in the regular classroom.

At this time the student's scores did not meet the requirements of the selection committee, however, he/she does have some strengths of which you should be aware. These strengths should be encouraged in the classroom through differentiation techniques. Please contact us for help in serving this student in your classroom. We also ask you to continue to observe this student and communicate any relevant information with the committee of G/T contact on campus.
